100% Tinta de Toro

HOW IT'S MADE

Produced solely from Tinta de Toro (Tempranillo) grapes from vineyards of approximately 30 years old. Vendimia Seleccionada means Vintage Selection and indicates that it's based around grape selection vs entire vineyards.

The wine undergoes traditional fermentation, in a temperature controlled environment.

TASTING NOTES

Intense aromas of black fruits with a rich berry undertone. The palate is substantial, robust and packed full of dense black fruit with cherries and some herbal notes. A well-balanced yet structured wine that has a long, rich finish.

This is a wine that over delivers compared to other known wines of Spain such as Rioja and Ribera del Duero that carry a higher price tag!

FOOD MATCH

Serve with a meaty stew or beef
