The Songlines Grenache, 2017

Rolf Binder

The ancient people of Australia navigated the vast emptiness of the continent using mind maps; instructions remembered in song and passed down the generations. Kind of like a pre-GPS Tom Tom. This enticing wine celebrates this near-lost tradition and the Barossa's well-trodden red earth in it's deep, warbling fruit, a very song of the soil.

100% Grenache

HOW IT'S MADE

This is a single vineyard Grenache. The grapes come from the Gomersal sub-region of the Barossa. Partially wild yeast fermented with around 30% whole bunches. Aged only in stainless steel to preserve a crunchy freshness.

TASTING NOTES

Versatile, super juicy, young, and bright. Brace yourself for a damson torpedo! Earthly notes beneath lovely warbly fruit. This is a really aromatic wine that captures the colorful and vibrant Aussie surroundings.

FOOD MATCH

The perfect match for herb infused grilled meat and ratatouille or pasta dishes.
